Here is my servant whom I uphold,

my chosen one with whom I am pleased,
upon whom I have put my spirit;
he shall bring forth justice to the nations.

Rest in Peace

We assure the families of Judy Bintz Jones (daughter of Louella Bintz), Kathy Miller (Sister of Bob Zahorik), Patrick Hoffman (cousin of Carol Alvarado), and Luke Francis Spallone of our prayers and support at this difficult time. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.
Today we celebrate the Baptism of Jesus, making it the perfect time to reflect on our Christian journeys. Ideally our Christian lives have a sense of purpose, reveal the mercy and love of God, and although difficult at times, are joyful. But we are human, and it is easy to get stuck in a rut.

I offer a poem for reflection by Howard Thurman. He was a contemporary of Martin Luther King, Jr. and served as his spiritual advisor. Thurman’s writings step beyond human divisions of race, class and creed and touch the very heart of what it means to be human. He reminds us that our primary vocation is to be in relationship with God and inspire others to seek the love of God.

I Will Sing a New Song

By JoEllen Cattapan

The old song of my spirit has wearied itself out.
It has long ago been learned by heart.
It repeats itself over and over,
Bringing no added joy to my day or lift to my spirit.
I will sing a new song.
I must learn the new song for the new needs.
I must fashion new words born of all the new growth of my life—of my mind—of my spirit.
I must prepare for new melodies that have never been mine before,
That all that is within me may lift my voice unto God.
Therefore, I shall rejoice with each new day
And delight my spirit in each fresh unfolding.
I will sing, this day, a new song unto the Lord.

Howard Thurman, The Mood of Christmas

Reflection Questions:

I must learn the new song for the new needs.
What are the new needs you are noticing at this time in your journey?

I must fashion new words born of all the new growth.
What is the new growth you are tending at this time?

I must prepare for the new melodies that have never been mine before.
What new melodies are you being called to prepare for?

FAITH SHARING

• Each year we celebrate the feast of the Baptism of Jesus, an important moment in His life and a transition to His public ministry. How do you celebrate the anniversary of YOUR baptism?

• The first reading seems to contain an oxymoron: the Lord’s chosen one will “bring forth justice to nations” while “not crying out, not shouting not making His voice heard in the street.” Who models this quiet, nonviolent justice for you?

SAINTS AND SPECIAL OBSERVANCES

Sunday: The Baptism of the Lord
Monday: First Week in Ordinary Time; St. Hilary

Sharing Ministry

Right about now the snowbirds begin to travel South, so please make it a point to support the Sharing Ministry in their absence. Our pantry is always in need of hot and cold cereals, baking supplies (flour, sugar, and brown sugar; cake, brownie, and cookie mixes; and frosting). At this time of year, our pantries also ask for canned dinners (ravioli, chili, stews, etc.) and soups. A reminder: Any special Valentine treats will need to be in the baskets by the weekend of February 1 to be delivered to St. Margaret of Scotland on February 4 and available at the pantry on February 8. As always, thank you for your continuing generosity.

Hearts AFire

Hearts AFire is a parish based program from the Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mother from Stockbridge, Massachusetts. Founded in 1620 by St Stanislaus Papczynski today there are over 500 priests and brothers serving 20 countries. They are the official promoters of the Divine Mercy message and devotion. Hearts AFire is a formation program designed to help people to set their hearts on fire with love of God and neighbors and to inspire individuals to works of mercy in their families, parishes and communities. The program consists of three stages and the study of six books. At the conclusion of the first book we are led to formally entrust ourselves to Mary. Later on we will consecrate ourselves to Divine Mercy. In Jesus’ words (Lk 12:49) “I have come to set fire on the earth and how I wish it were already burning!”

If you are interested in participating in the next session please call Emilia at 847-498-5169 to be placed on the list. Feel free to call with any other questions.

THANK YOU

Dear Parishioners of CCN,

On behalf of the board and staff of WINGS and the hundreds of families we serve each year, Thanks You for the generous donation of 28 boxes of items from the WINGS wish list, and $1925 in donations. WINGS continuum of services: housing, counseling, and mentoring are the threads clients use to transform their lives and work toward their full potential. When the sewing process is finished, a beautiful pattern of healthy relationships and the broken cycle of domestic violence can be seen; ultimately resulting in stronger, safer and healthier communities for the future. With your gift, YOU have joined the “patchwork of support” our clients look to for comfort, warmth, tailored uniqueness, security, and support.

Sincerely,
Sylvia Zaldivar, Chief Development Officer, WINGS

Prison Ministry Collection

THANK YOU to all who donated during the holidays! We collected blank Christmas cards and envelopes for women who are currently incarcerated. They were able to use those cards to send holiday messages to loved ones.

All the donations were greatly appreciated. We are now discontinuing the collection for the season.

If you are interested in the Prison Ministry, contact Barbara Kaplan at (847) 987-9359. There are other needs during the year, and your help would be wonderful.

SAINT HILARY (c. 315-367)
January 13

Born in Poitiers, France, whose populace would later elect him bishop, Hilary, married and a father, was converted from paganism to Christianity through his reading of scripture. The focus of his prayerful study was the Prologue to the Gospel according to John, which portrays Jesus as the divine Logos, eternally begotten of the Father. As a result, Hilary became in the words of the biblical scholar Jerome, “the Latin Trumpet against the Arians,” heretics who believed Jesus to be merely human, not divine. In defense of Christ’s divinity, Hilary was not only eloquent in debate but utterly fearless in the face of relentless persecution and even exile. Thus by the witness of his own discipleship, Hilary taught that faith in Jesus as the divine Son of God has consequences. Reflecting on Jesus’ challenge to His disciples, “You are the salt of the earth” (Matthew 5:13), Hilary notes that, as salt both preserves from corruption and adds savor to food, so must the faithful disciple bear a witness that, by word and example, leads others to immortality and virtuous living.
