Rest in Peace

We assure the families of Vera Emily McCune and Robert Antognoli of our prayers and support at this difficult time. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.
THE VIEW FROM THE BENCH

“Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?”

We are all busy! Maybe some of us find that we are too busy! It seems that so many of us are constantly moving from one thing to the next, and trying to do everything we can to just “keep up” with all that we have on our calendars. Knowing the busy pace that so many of us keep, myself included, I think that is why the line above from today’s Gospel really resonates with me. Do you take the time to stop, come back, and give thanks to God? Are you simply too busy to stop and feel the pressure to hurry on to the next thing as soon as you finish the current one? Personally, I find myself too often in the group of nine who do not come back to give thanks.

A few weeks ago, we had our first-ever Ministry Fair. In light of today’s Gospel, I want to take a brief moment to return to it and give thanks to everyone who helped make the day such a success. The idea of the Ministry Fair is one that people have been talking about trying to do for years, but for whatever reason, we were never able to make it happen. Fortunately for us, this year that changed! I was excited that we were finally able to make it happen. I wish I had captured more pictures to share here, but I only have a glimpse of the gym just before we opened the doors at 10:30 am.

At our Ministry Fair, nearly 30 ministries came together to showcase the great work being done across the parish. I found the joy and excitement to be contagious as people were setting up and preparing for the day. The energy continued to increase as the day unfolded. The Ministry Fair was a tangible reminder of the great ways we are all working together to serve our sisters and brothers both near and far. It was exciting to see ministries talking with fellow parishioners and sharing what their ministry is all about. I also loved seeing ministries talking to other ministries and exploring ways they might be able to collaborate together on future endeavors. As I said above, I wanted to return and give thanks for this day. I want to give thanks for all that everyone did from the behind-the-scenes work to prepare for the Ministry Fair, to those that stayed to fold tables Sunday afternoon, and everything in between. This was an incredible group effort and so many people had crucial roles in making the day what it was. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

God Bless,

Mass Intentions— Changes in Our Procedure
October 29: 2020 Mass Book Open

The Opening date for the Mass Book of 2020 intentions will be Tuesday, October 29 at 9:00 am in the Parish Office. This year, we will implement a new system of taking Mass Intentions, using a lottery system. On Oct. 29, you will draw a number, and can put in your Mass requests when your number is drawn. According to the Code of Canon Law—94: Separate Masses must be applied for the intentions of those for whom an individual offering, even if small, has been made and accepted. The Archdiocese allows two Masses per week to be multiple-intention Masses. These will be celebrated each Tuesday and Friday at 8:15 am. There will be a limit to one Sunday Mass per calendar month for an individual name. (12 Sunday Masses per year.) There is no limit to weekday Masses for an individual. (But limited to once per week.)

If you cannot attend, call the parish office after Oct. 29 and see what dates remain open. We cannot accept advance bookings or checks for Masses. Any checks received before the ‘opening date’ of the Mass book will be returned. Intentions for the Mass are limited to one person and/or spouse per Mass. Should there be more family names, they will be listed as “Deceased Members of the _____ Family."

These changes are to bring our parish into alignment with Canon Law.

Sharing Ministry

As always at this season, Halloween treats will be very welcome at St. Margaret of Scotland. The ghostly goodies will need to be delivered there before October 22 so the pantry can distribute them the following weekend.

On a similar theme, let’s help our RE students Scare Hunger. Each year they collect donations of food for SMOS, Catholic Charities, and the Northfield Food Pantry. Bring a bag of groceries tagged “We Scare Hunger” to the baskets at St. Norbert. In church on the first weekend in November, you’ll see the enormous impact of your generosity. After the 5:30 Mass on November 3, volunteers will carry those bags to the vans outside church for delivery the next day. It’s an impressive sight.

If not us, who?
If not now, when?

New Book from Bishop Barron
“Letter to a Suffering Church”

The sexual abuse scandal has gripped the Catholic Church for the past thirty years, and continues to wreak havoc even today. It’s been a diabolical masterpiece, one that has compromised the work of the Church in every way and has left countless lives in ruin.

For Catholics questioning their faith, searching desperately for encouragement and hope, this book will offer reasons to stay and fight for the Body of Christ. A few copies are available in the parish office.

World Mission Sunday

Next weekend, we join with the Church around the globe to celebrate World mission Sunday. This year, the Holy Father has declared the entire month of October an Extraordinary Month of Mission, through which we recommit ourselves to the mission of God in recognition that our faith in Jesus Christ and our relationship with the People of God are missionary by nature. Our faith is a treasure to be given, shared and proclaimed.

This celebration also presents an opportunity to support the global network of missionary commitment, known as the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, through prayer, the souls of mission and charitable offerings from Christians throughout the world. The annual World Mission Sunday second collection provides critical support to communities of faith in the most economically disadvantaged regions of our world. Working with limited means, these local churches bear witness to the Gospel amid poverty and turmoil, addressing all forms of material and spiritual need.

This collection serves:
- Approximately 75% supports efforts of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith to help sustain over 1000 mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, Latin America and the Pacific Islands.
- Nearly 10% supports the work of the Catholic Near East Welfare Association to alleviate poverty, foster Christian unity and promote interreligious dialogue in the Middle East, Northeast Africa, India and Eastern Europe.
- About 15% supports the operations of the Mission Office of the Archdiocese of Chicago, which builds bridges of love and support between global missionaries and members of the Church in Chicago.

In his message for World Mission Sunday this year, Pope Francis states that, “The Church is on a mission in the world...Each of us is a mission to the world, for each of us is the fruit of God’s love.” Those serving in mission at the global peripheries, especially communities of individuals who follow the command to serve despite their own financial struggles, witness this message of service and self-sacrifice. By joining with them, we in turn bear witness to a message of love and compassion so need in our world today.

WE SCARE HUNGER

It’s time again for We Scare Hunger—a food collection around Halloween to help the hungry.

Sunset Foods bags will be distributed starting on Tuesday, October 15 to Religious Education students to kick off this annual Food Drive. We are asking students and families to distribute bags to their neighbors with the goal of collecting food for the Sharing Ministry, which provides food to St. Margaret of Scotland Food Pantry, and the Northfield Food Pantry. Please bring your food donation to Grace Hall by Friday, November 1, from 3:30 to 6:00 pm, or on Nov. 2, from 8:30 am to 12:00 noon. Expiration dates will be checked, and the food will be sorted on Nov. 2 from 2:00 to 3:00 pm. Some of the bags will be moved to St. Norbert Church to display at the Sunday Masses. On Sunday, Nov. 3, it will be loaded up after the 5:30 pm Mass and taken to the pantries. If you can help during any of these time slots, contact Sharon Cuncannan at (847) 366-6535. We’d love to have your help!

Donations at Our Lady of the Brook can be put in the Social Area by Friday, Nov. 1 at noon. After the 12:15 pm Holy Day Mass at OLB, the donations will be picked up. Some of these donations will go to the St. Martin de Porres Food Pantry. Bags will be available in the back of OLB, at the entrances. Again, if you can help, contact Sharon.

How to maintain healthy relationships

A healthy relationship builds more trust among the people. It cultivates our lives productively. It sets realistic expectations. It helps us to change and grow. It dives things that hurt. We learn to let things go.

The Holy Spirit Life Learning Center will be hosting an information session (in English and Spanish) to provide knowledge, skills, and remedies to help maintain healthy relationships in family life. We have invited a speaker who works in WINGS Program for this profound talk. Come and join us!

Registration is required. Please call 847-947-8947 or visit us in person. Child care will be available during the session.

Watch me dream!

In the fourth month the baby’s brain has begun maturing - a process that will continue until she is about 14 years old. He eyelids are now sealed shut and will re-open at 7 months. Her taste buds are now working. Nutrients consumed by her mother are passed on to her within an hour or two. Three hundred quarts of fluid a day are sent to the baby via the umbilical cord. Fine hair begins to grow on head, eyebrows and eyelashes. Facial expressions similar to the baby’s parents can be seen at this time. This month REMs (rapid eye movements) have been recorded - a sign of dreaming.
