Rest in Peace

We assure the families of Mary Ann Ryan Redding O’Regan (sister-in-law of Kathy O’Regan), Christine Mueller (mother of Jeanne Denison), Bruno Jaselskis (father of Cathie Alberts), Beatrice Apelian (Mother of George), and Peggy Mathes (mother of Margaret Gertner) of our prayers and support at this difficult time. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.
John the Baptist is sure not pulling any punches in this weekend’s Gospel when he says to the Pharisees and Sadducees, “You brood of vipers!” Between the Gospels of these first two Sundays of Advent, the message could not be any more clear. The time is now to prepare for the coming of the Lord! John the Baptist is clear that it is not just superficial change where we claim to be different, but he wants to see the “good fruit as evidence of your repentance.” We have to be prepared in the same way the master of the house would have prepared if he had known the hour that the thief was coming. To me, these are real wake-up calls!

Another real wake-up call for me has been celebrating Kate’s first birthday this past week. I have said to many people that this has been the fastest year of my life. I hear many of you saying, “Oh, just wait” as you read this, and I can only imagine the way the pace of life will continue to increase as Kate continues to grow. As challenging or trying as some of the small moments may be, the overall, forever life-changing blessing of parenthood is beyond anything I could have ever imagined. Last year’s holiday season was quite a blur as Emily and I were eagerly anticipating Kate’s arrival, and once she arrived, the whirlwind of adjusting to life blurred many of the individual details of the holiday season. This season has been new and exciting as we get to glimpse a bit of the holiday season through her eyes. While she may not fully understand Thanksgiving, her birthday, or Christmas, her innocent, pure joy when she is surrounded by friends and family is enough for us.

However, I come back to the messages of the past two Gospels in light of being a parent. There is a message calling for real, tangible change. At the same time, it is hard to not get caught up in what the holiday season has become outside of the Church. It is everywhere we turn as we have been at it since Halloween (or earlier)! I share questions that have been in my prayer life this Advent season in hopes it helps to enhance your prayer as well. Am I really ready to change my ways to welcome the Lord? Am I able, as a father, to help guide Kate in what the meaning of this season is truly about? When the Lord comes, how will He know that we were prepared?

God Bless,
Michael Ward
Director of Music & Liturgy

Opłatki Available

If you wish to pick up Opłatki for Advent, they are available in the Parish Office. Christmas wafers are a central European Christmas tradition celebrated in Poland, Lithuania, Latvia and in some parts of Slovakia during the Christmas Eve Vigil. The unleavened wafers are baked from pure wheat flour and water, are usually rectangular in shape and are very thin. The Opłatki wafers are embossed with Christmas-related religious images, varying from the nativity scene to the Star of Bethlehem.

Turkeys for the Poor

For the last 40+ years St. Norbert and Our Lady of the Brook parishioners have donated to a program that feeds the needy in the Chicago area. This charity has grown to a program that partners with 29 shelters, food pantries and soup kitchens. Last month, volunteers delivered nearly 650 turkeys for Thanksgiving meals. Planning is underway to deliver another 1100 turkeys and more than $2,000 of grocery gift cards for Christmas.

These distributions to our caretaker partners feed poor families and fill shelter tables that bring cheer to the homeless. None of this would be possible without your support. The annual Turkeys for the Poor collection will take place next week, after all the masses December 14 and 15. You will see our volunteer “worker elves” on your way out. Checks may be payable to the Turkeys for the Poor. Thank you for 40 years of generosity. Let’s work to bring warmth and joy to the less fortunate in our area.

Sharing Ministry

On November 23, the Sharing Ministry received this note from Alfreda Rogers at St. Margaret of Scotland:

Hello Team Norbert/OLB,
All we can say is thank you from the bottom of our hearts" for your generosity. Every one of our clients today got a turkey if they chose to take one, along with all the trimmings. Today was a great day.

95 Clients
420 Bags of Food
To God be the glory for your unwavering support.

Peace & Blessings,
Alfreda

Just another reminder that donations for Christmas delivery to St. Margaret must be in by next weekend.

Mass Visit by Rev. Matt Foley, Director of El Niño Rey

Many parishioners have come to know Fr. Matt while volunteering for El Niño Rey’s mobile dental mission trips to Mexico. He will be celebrating a Blessing Mass at St. Norbert at 5:00 on Saturday, December 14 for volunteers leaving on January 4 to go to Jalapa in the state of Guerrero, Mexico.

Fr. Matt served for 6 years in the mid-90’s in an exchange program with Mexico and the Archdiocese of Chicago. His travel from St. James the Apostle (Parroquia de Santiago Apostal) in Quechultenango to the 70 remote villages located in the Sierra Madre Mountains of Guerrero, made him realize the overwhelming financial need for education among poor children in those areas. Seeking to rescue these children from indigence, he sent letters back home to family and friends for money to help this cause. This involvement fostered the cause and promise that “every child is king”. Thus El Niño Rey (The Child King) was born.

In 2000, while transitioning to parish life in the US, Fr. Matt spent months, initially at St. Norbert, formalizing El Niño Rey Scholarship Program which continues today with two annual appeals. A decision was made in 2001 to begin dental missions to Guerrero. El Niño Rey’s scholarship and dental work activities will be celebrated with a 25th anniversary gathering in the fall of 2020 at St. Norbert and Our Lady of the Brook parish.

In addition, in late October 2019, the Chicago Dental Society selected Fr. Matt (now Pastor at St. James Arlington Heights) to receive its George H. Cushing Award honoring individuals who raise public awareness about oral health issues. The Award reads in part, “For your dedication and commitment to the dental profession for your noble work with El Niño Rey in Quechultenango, Mexico”. He will be honored next February 2020 at the Chicago Dental Society Midwinter meeting in Chicago.

SPRED NEWS
The St. Norbert SPRED group helped fill the baskets of the Sharing Ministry with food the students had collected. The evening’s lesson was to help the students understand that we have a responsibility to people who don’t have enough money for food; to be grateful for the many gifts we have; and to create a service project as the students prepare for Confirmation on April 19, 2020.

If anyone is interested in joining the SPRED group as a Catechist, contact Donna Birren 847-431-5340 or Mary Beth Manso 847-409-7918.
